

Backyard Boogie:

- Barnyard animals make noises that the class then repeats
- At the end each child picks a favorite animal to sing as in the barnyard chorus

Witch,Monster, Ghost

- Teacher has 3 different toys with different voices
- The wolf in the song is represented by a slide sliding, the engine is represented by a low “chugga chugga” and a high “choo choo”.

Mickey/Goofy

- ”Hey guys” (high register)
- ”Oh gorsh” (low register)

Flying Squirrel

- The flight path of the squirrel when thrown determines the register used. If the squirrel goes from high to low, slide voice registers from high to low as well

Seagulls

- ”Mine, Mine, Mine”

Dori

- “How are you” respond in low whale voice

Mortimer

- Sound book
- Children repeat sounds

Fire Engine

- Siren noise

Monkey

- Make monkey noises

Rollarcoaster ride

-Students will ride the coaster and at each high point will correlate it with their voice register
